

CEDARBURG AREA

Visitors consistently rank Cedarburg as a favorite small-town getaway. The city's beautifully preserved downtown Historic District offers a delightful array of specialty stores, art exhibits and museums, restaurants, and inns. From its charming shops and cozy coffee shops to its meticulously maintained historic buildings and architecture, Cedarburg is a city you'll never tire of exploring and is easy to get to, just 20 minutes north of Milwaukee. Our Visitor Center, in the General Store Museum, is open 7 days/week.

While visiting Cedarburg, tour, taste and enjoy award winning wines at the Cedar Creek Winery located in the historic Cedar Creek Settlement, along the banks of Cedar Creek. The Settlement complex, established in a circa-1864 former woolen mill, houses more than 25 gift, clothing, and antique shops, art galleries and restaurants.

Throughout the year, visitors are encouraged to travel The Ozaukee Interurban Trail, which passes through downtown Cedarburg. Cyclists and walkers can easily stop at the local eateries, coffeehouses or microbrewery. All of these and more are near the trail's route through the city.

Cedarburg is also known for its family-oriented festivals, which attract thousands of tourists each year. Winter Festival, in February, will warm your heart with its ice sculpting and bed races. The Strawberry Festival in June and Wine & Harvest

Festival in September offer art and craft fairs, musical entertainment, food, hayrides, farmer's market and children activities. The International Cycling Classic comes to downtown Cedarburg each July.

Over the past several decades Cedarburg has earned its reputation as a well-respected arts enclave. The 580-seat Cedarburg Performing Arts Center attracts nationally recognized performers, while the Cedarburg Cultural Center hosts an eclectic mix of ongoing art exhibits and acclaimed live performances. Cedarburg is also known for its Annual Arts Weekend & Studio Tours in October and Wearable Art Show in March.
