Welcome HOME B&B in Fredonia

Unlike many Bed and Breakfasts which are older homes converted to include lodging, Welcome HOME B&B in Fredonia was newly constructed from the ground up, and opened to the public in May of 1998. Modern touches and attention to detail has made the home and surrounding 18-acre grounds wheelchair friendly and accessible to all.

The owners wanted to find a rural setting that wasn't too remote, and while the search for the perfect location was lengthy, it was time well spent. Located just a few miles from the popular towns of Cedarburg, Port Washington and West Bend, Welcome HOME B&B is set on a hillside of prairie and woodland, where the trees sing when the breezes blow. The house offers breathtaking sunsets, fresh air, sweet scents and vibrant seasonal color. Birds and woodland creatures romp, play and entertain guests in the grassy areas and woods around the house at all hours.

Welcome HOME B&B has two spacious guest bedrooms. Both are on the main floor with no-step entry, and both feature a private bathroom with whirlpool tub. Both rooms feature all the comforts of home.
